20 TO THE COURT:

21 I, Anh Q. D. Nguyen, declare as follows:

22 I am an attorney at law duly admitted to practice as such
23 before all Courts of the State of California and am a principle
24 in the law firm of ANH Q. D. NGUYEN & ASSOCIATES, attorneys of 25 record for Plaintiff BUN BUN TRAN in this matter. If called as 26 a witness, I could and would competently testify to the 27 following facts of my own personal knowledge.

28 1. On January 22, 2007, I was representing Bun Bun Tran
by and through his mother and also his guardian, Le Thi Nguyen;

1 and Le Thi Nguyen signed a retainer on the behalf of Bun Bun
2 Tran on January 22, 2007;

3 2. On January 26, 2007, I sent a policy limit demand to 4 Progressive Insurance Company after I was retained by Le Thi
5 Nguyen to represent Bun Bun Tran's interest as a result of the 6 accident of November 18, 2006. Attached as Exhibit "1";

7 3. My Exhibit "1" letter has conditions incorporated in 8 it;

9 4. In response to my Exhibit "1" letter, Progressive
10 Insurance Company sent to me its letter of February 02, 2007. A
11 true copy of that letter is attached as Exhibit "2";

12 5. As the Court can see, Progressive Insurance Company's 13 Exhibit "2" letter is a counter-offer, not an acceptance of my 14 Exhibit "1" offer because Progressive Insurance Company's 15 Exhibit "2" letter never addresses my Exhibit "1" conditions;

16 6. Shortly thereafter, Progressive Insurance Company
17 withdrew its Exhibit "2" counter-offer in the form of March 02,
18 2007 letter, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto
19 as Exhibit "3". As the Court can see, this Exhibit "3" letter
20 expressly withdraws Progressive Insurance Company's earlier
21 $15,000.00 unconditional counter-offer;

22 7. In response to Progressive Insurance Company's letter
23 dated March 02, 2007 (Exhibit "3"), on March 14, 2007, I sent by 24 mail and fax another letter to Progressive Insurance Company. A
25 true copy of that letter is attached as Exhibit "4";

26 8. Shortly thereafter, Progressive Insurance Company sent
27 another letter dated March 15, 2007, in which it again
28 acknowledges that it rejected my conditional policy limit letter

1 (Exhibit "1") by way of making its own new March 15, 2007
2 counter-offer. A true and correct copy of which is attached
3 hereto as Exhibit "5"

4 9. At no time before even today has Progressive Insurance
5 Company ever responded orally or in writing to my Exhibit "1"
6 policy limit letter.

7 10. I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws
8 of California that the above statements are truthful and correct
9 to the best of my knowledge.

Re:	My Client:	Bun Bun Tran
	Your Insured/Defendant:	Leonel Arrellano
	Date of Accident:	November 18, 2006
	Your Claim No.:	060409287

Dear Ms. Foster:

Please be advised that I represent Bun Bun Tran, who was seriously injured because of your insured running a stop sign. Thereafter, your insured fled from the scene. He has been arrested and is currently awaiting a criminal hearing in February of this year. My client has been hospitalized at UC San Diego, Floor 8 East, Room 812A, in a comatose condition since November 18, 2006. I understand that you have learned about his condition and the facts behind this accident from Esurance, the auto insurance company of Bun Bun Tran. You therefore know that the medical expenses are approaching $700,000 and Progressive has insufficient amounts of liability insurance.

My client is represented by his mother/guardian, Le Thi Nguyen. My client is hereby willing to be responsible for any and all medical and other liens so long as Progressive tenders all of its liability limits within 15 days from the date of this letter subject to the further condition precedent of convincing me that there are no other responsible parties, whether insured or not, causing this accident. If I am convinced, I will state as much in a letter. If I am not convinced, I will never state as much in a letter and there will be no settlement. Please also tell me, since it may bear on settlement, whether or not your insured received liquor at a Chili's restaurant shortly before the accident, and if so, which Chili's restaurant. We understand that Chili's was your insured's employer at the time of the accident.

Very truly yours,

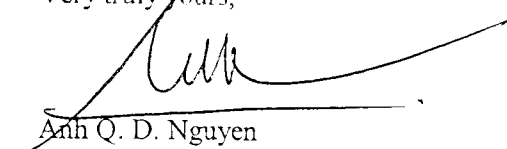

Anh Q. D. Nguyen

Re:	My Client:	Bun Bun Tran
	Your Claim No.	060409287
	Date of Loss:	November 18, 2006
	Your Insured:	Leonel Arrellano

Dear Ms. Turner:

I have received your March 2, 2007 letter, which I must reject in its entirety. Firstly, you have never asked for an extension to my previous policy limits offers nor have you asked in your March 2, 2007 letter for a reinstatement of any policy limits settlement offer on behalf of my client from my office.

Your March 2, 2007 letter merely states that you are just now making an "effort to investigate and evaluate this claim." You also admit in this letter that you are "waiting for a demand from the City of San Diego for their property damage." When did you first become aware of any potential claim against your insured by the City of San Diego? Was it after a governmental tort claim was made against the City of San Diego? Have you also become aware, through the City of San Diego, of a criminal prosecution against Leonel Arrellano in which he has pled guilty and where he remains incarcerated? When did you first make an effort to obtain a police report for this accident? Enclosed is an extra copy of the police report, which my office obtained but which you never requested or discussed. How is it that you must still "investigate and evaluate"? How is it that my client is supposed to wait around for you to determine when it is convenient to advise us "of the progress of [your] investigation?"

As to the last paragraph of your March 2, 2007 letter, my above questions and enclosed police report is in response to your letter statement: "If you have any questions or other information that has relevance to our consideration of your claim, please contact the undersigned.” Please limit all of your future communications with my office to letter form. I sadly regret the arrogant and dismissive nature of your March 2, 2007 letter. The City of San Diego’s alleged property damage claim could have been paid out of the money received from the Victims of Crime Fund. Your company’s typical inability to communicate, except through form letters, has resulted in your insured remaining as a defendant in larger litigation. My office would have dismissed all claims against the world had Progressive West Insurance Company only been prompt, timely and polite.

Very truly yours,

Anh Q. D. Nguyen

SYNOPSIS:

Arrellano struck a car as he drove through an intersection. The driver Arrellano struck sustained serious injuries. Arrellano drove away without contacting the injured driver. Arrellano has no license and is not in the country legally. Arrellano was driving under the influence of alcohol at the time of the collision.

ORIGIN

I was contacted by my supervisor, Traffic Sgt Mike McCollough (ID No 2934) whilst I was at the Traffic Division Trailers and asked to assist with a hit and run collision that involved a drinking driver. I responded at 0141 hours from Traffic Division, arriving at 3500 Juniper Street at about 0151 hours.

VEHICLE ACTIONS:

Arrellano, P1, was driving south on Commonwealth Avenue towards Juniper Street. The two streets intersect at right angles, and traffic on Commonwealth is controlled by stop signs. Juniper Street, an east-west street, has no controls at the intersection. Bun Bun Tran, the driver of the other involved vehicle, P2, was driving east on Juniper Street. P1 failed to stop for the stop sign on Commonwealth, and broadsided P2. The impact caused P2 to rotate counter-clockwise and come to rest on the southeast corner sidewalk of the intersection. P1 came to rest on the east sidewalk of Commonwealth Ave, south of Juniper Street, before P1 fleeing the scene in his vehicle.

DRIVER IDENTIFICATION:

Arrellano was identified as the driver of the white Ford Pickup by his statements (both pre and post Miranda Admonishment), indicating he had been the driver at the time of the collision. Additionally, [REDACTED] a witness, was brought to the scene and identified Arrellano as the driver she had seen drive away from the collision.

INVESTIGATION:

At the collision scene I spoke with Traffic Sgt A. Doherty III, (ID No 3401). He informed me that the driver that had fled the collision scene had been detained at 4100 Wabash Avenue. Before leaving to contact the driver I spoke to one of the witnesses, [REDACTED] provided a brief statement. (See below for details.)

I responded to the west alley of 4100 Wabash Avenue.

There I spoke to Sgt A. Massey (ID No 1596) who told me he had driven up the alley to see a Hispanic male exiting a vehicle which matched the suspect vehicle description. Sgt Massey detained the driver and pointed out a patrol car where the driver was seated.

Opening the door for the driver I asked him to step out. I noticed he was handcuffed. I removed the handcuffs and told the driver, (later identified as Leonel Arrellano by his Mexican Consulate Identification Card), that he was not under arrest, but he was not free to leave. I asked him if he understood and he told me he did. I spoke to him in English. I explained that I was there to make sure he was ok to drive, as he had been drinking. I had Arrellano walk to the opposite side of the patrol car as the ground was level there.

DRIVER EVALUATION:

I explained in Spanish what I wanted Arrellano to do in order to check his eyes for HGN. Twice I had to tell him to hold his head still before he was able to hold it still. As we conversed, I could smell that Arrellano had been drinking. Additionally his eyes were red and watery. About this time Sgt. Lara (ID No 5591) arrived and assisted me with interviewing Arrellano.

I asked Arrellano in Spanish what time he had had his first alcoholic drink that night. He answered in English, 1140, and I clarified PM.

I asked in Spanish what time he had his last drink and he answered in Spanish, "Doce y media" (1230).

In Spanish I asked what kind of drinks, and he said in English, "Four small Coronas." I clarified if he meant "Coronitas" and he said in English "Yes."

When asked in Spanish if he had consumed any alcoholic beverages in the last hour, Arrellano stated in Spanish, "No, I was working."

Even though I told Arrellano to stand with his feet together and keep his hands at his side, he kept rubbing his wrists together, complaining about the discomfort caused by the handcuffs, and the cold night air.

One Legged Stand

After demonstrating and explaining the test, in English and Spanish, Arrellano began the test, and lifted his right leg before setting it down right away. He began again and counted to ten. It appeared he might not have understood that he should count to 30, and after Sgt. Lara explained the test again, Arrellano raised his right leg, and raced through the count to 30, in 9 seconds.

Walk and Turn

Swaying during instructions, and then steps 2, 4, 7, 9, not heel to toe and difficulty with balance. On nine, just stood there, as if he was finished. I asked him to continue (in Spanish) and he didn't know what to do, so I told him in Spanish to turn and walk back 9 steps. He turned, with some balance difficulty, and then walked back without counting out loud. He again had to lean to the right and left and pause in his walk to maintain his balance.

Alphabet

I asked Arrellano if he knew the Spanish alphabet. He told me he did, and so after I demonstrated the test, he parroted my example "A B C D E F Z". When asked again if he could recite the alphabet, it appeared Arrellano was embarrassed that he did not know the alphabet. I told him it was ok not to know it, and I would not ask him to say it. He admitted to not knowing the alphabet.

Count

Explained and demonstrated in Spanish. Arrellano said he could count and did so in Spanish "74 73 72 71 70 69 68 67 66 65 64 63 62 40 39 38 37 36 36 35 33 35 30 31 30 29." I told Arrellano to stop counting.

Stand

When he closed his eyes, Arrellano started leaning forward, leaning so far forward that he looked like he was defying gravity. He maintained this position for 28 seconds.

Asking Arrellano if he felt he was okay to drive, he said, "Yes".

I arrested Arrellano for 23153 VC, DUI causing Injuries, 12500(a) VC, Driving without a License, and 20001 VC, Hit and Run with Injuries.

MIRANDA ADMONISHMENT:

At 0236 hours Sgt. Lara (ID No 5591) advised Arrellano of his rights (in Spanish), to which he responded "Si" and "Si".

INVESTIGATION CONTINUED:

I handcuffed Arrellano and placed him in my patrol car as he told me he would take blood test. I drove him to Police Headquarters where I allowed him to use the bathroom, as I feared he would urinate on himself. After that a blood sample was collected by [REDACTED] at 0300 hours. I impounded the blood phials on tag B06-4983 at Room 138.

I placed Arrellano back in my patrol car where he remained as Det D. Wall (ID No 3602) re-interviewed him.

Border Patrol responded and placed an Immigration Hold on Arrellano, as he had previously stated he was in the United States of America illegally.

After completing the remaining paperwork needed for booking, I prepared to transport Arrellano to jail. He asked to be allowed to urinate again. After he used the bathroom I transported Arrellano to jail, where he was booked without incident.

At no time during my conversations with Arrellano did he inquire about the welfare of the other driver. He spent more time worrying about the fate of his pickup after learning it was being impounded.

STATEMENTS

Statement of Leonel Arrellano

I asked Arrellano to tell me about the collision. He proceeded to explain, in Spanish, that he stopped at the stop sign, and didn't see anyone coming. His girlfriend was calling him on his phone. He added that he was going to report the accident to the police and was going to go back to the scene, but he couldn't as he had to pick-up his girlfriend.

What was the color of the vehicle he struck, I asked him. Arrellano told me it was white.

I asked how fast he thought he was going at the time of the collision. Arrellano said, again in Spanish, that the area is a 25 mph zone, and he had been stopped. "I stopped, and then I moved from the stop sign, and 'boom'" - in Spanish.

I asked in Spanish, how fast, in miles an hour, more or less, he thought he had been going. Answering in Spanish, he said, "I wasn't even going miles."

Statement of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] told me she had heard a collision, and looked out her window to see two vehicles, a sedan and a pickup. The pickup, she told me, began to back up. [REDACTED] explained she ran downstairs and went outside in time to see the white pickup drive south on Commonwealth Avenue. She added that Commonwealth Avenue is a dead-end street. After a few moments she said the white pick-up truck began backing (north) up Commonwealth Avenue. Seeing the license plate she provided its information to dispatchers.

I asked her to describe the driver. She said he appeared to be a Hispanic male wearing a light colored shirt, in his early 20's, with short hair or a shaved head. She added he appeared to be of short stature, and was driving a white Ford F150. She yelled at the driver, but he did not stop.

At approximately 0106 I monitored a broadcast of a serious hit and run accident at 3500 Juniper Street. A witness at the scene advised that the driver of a white Ford pickup truck, California license plate 7X43895 had fled the scene. The driver was described as a Hispanic male with short hair. The vehicle came back registered to 4128 Wabash, to a Arellano, Leonard. I was checking the area to the rear of 4128 Wabash and sighted a White Ford Pickup truck, with a matching license plate as described by the witness.

I saw a Hispanic male matching the described suspect information, standing outside the driver door of the suspect vehicle. I was requested a cover unit to the scene. Unit 655z2 arrived on scene to cover me as I was detaining the suspect for further investigation.

The suspect I detained was Arellano, Leonard. Arellano was released to Traffic units that arrived at my location.

See additional reports submitted by traffic investigators for additional information.

1 8. On November 18, 2006, at 1:05 a.m., plaintiff Bun Bun Tran was driving his automobile
2 eastbound on Juniper Street in the City of San Diego. There was no stop sign or any 3 other traffic control device for said eastbound Juniper Street traffic at the intersection of 4 Commonwealth and Juniper Street.

5 9. Eastbound plaintiff Bun Bun "Roy" Tran was prevented from seeing any southbound
6 Commonwealth Avenue traffic at any point north of the intersection of Juniper Street and
7 Commonwealth Avenue before entering said intersection due to the existence of foliage
8 higher than 3 feet. This foliage started from the Northwest corner of Juniper and 9 Commonwealth and continued uninterrupted northbound along the western edge of 10 Commonwealth.

11 10. At the same time, defendant Leonel Arrellano, was driving his pickup truck southbound
12 on Commonwealth Avenue in the City of San Diego.

13 11. Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street intersect and traffic on Commonwealth
14 Avenue is controlled by a stop sign which gives Juniper Street traffic the right-of-way.

15 12. At 1:05 a.m., on November 18, 2006, Leonel Arrellano failed to stop for the stop sign on 16 Commonwealth and collided with Bun Bun Tran's automobile on Juniper Street.

17 13. Bun Bun Tran's automobile was pushed across Juniper Street and came to rest on the 18 southeast corner of the intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper.

19 14. Mr. Tran suffered severe and permanent injuries, including head trauma, subarachnoid
20 hemorrhage, loss of consciousness, coma, ruptured spleen and severe and permanent 21 brain injuries.

22 15. Defendant Leonel Arrellano fled the accident scene and was arrested by the City of San 23 Diego Police Department at his home at 4128 Wabash Avenue. Mr. Arrellano was 24 arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol, driving without a license and hit and-
25 run.

26 16. Mr. Arrellano is a Mexican national and in the United States illegally.

27 17. Mr. Arrellano was questioned by the City of San Diego Police Department in Spanish.
28

1 18. Mr. Arrellano told the police that he had been drinking while working and socializing as a
2 cook at Chili's Restaurant in the late previous evening and had continued drinking until 3 12:30 a.m. on November 18, 2006.

4 19. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Mr. Arrellano was an employee of Chili's
5 Restaurant located at 4252 Camino del Rio North, San Diego, CA 92108 and had been
6 drinking at Chili's, including after business hours, immediately prior to the accident.

7 20. Mr. Tran was taken from the accident scene and transported to UCSD Hospital by San 8 Diego Paramedics. He remains comatose with a positive brain MRI for bleeding.

9 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Negligence Against LEONEL ARRELLANO, BRINKER INTERNATIONAL, INC., dba CHILI'S RESTAURANT, INC., PATRICIA L. COLE, and DOES 1 through 15 inclusive)

11 21. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations contained in 12 Paragraphs 1 through 20, inclusive, as though fully set forth.

13 22. Defendant Patricia L. Cole ("Cole") is the owner of a residence commonly known as 14 3496 Juniper Street and located at the northwest corner of Commonwealth Avenue and 15 Juniper Street. Said corner is the location of the Commonwealth Avenue Stop Sign
16 which controlled southbound Commonwealth traffic at Juniper.

17 23. Defendant Chili's Restaurant Inc., was and at all times relevant hereto, the employer of 18 defendant Leonel Arrellano.

19 24. The City of San Diego ("the City") restricts all corner property throughout the City from 20 having any fences or planting material taller than 3 feet within 25 feet of an intersection.
21 City of San Diego Municipal Code §§ 113.0273, 113.0103 and 142.0310. The purpose of 22 said ordinances is to protect the class of drivers, including plaintiff and defendant, by 23 providing visibility of vehicles approaching intersections and by ensuring that traffic
24 control devices are not obscured by foliage.

25 25. The City also has an ordinance which restricts trees from being within 20 feet of a stop
26 sign. City of San Diego Municipal Code § 142.0409. The purpose of said ordinances is 27 to protect the class of drivers, including plaintiff and defendant, by providing visibility of 28

1 vehicles approaching intersections and by ensuring that traffic control devices are not
2 obscured by foliage.

3 26. Defendant Cole's property has fencing and foliage along Juniper Street and 4 Commonwealth Avenue which is approximately 6 feet tall and runs continuously along 5 her property lines on both Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street, directly to the 6 intersection, all in violation of the City's visibility ordinances as codified in City of San 7 Diego Municipal Code §§ 113.0273, 113.0103 and 142.0310.

8 27. Defendant Cole's property is also adjacent to a City right-of-way in which Cole permitted 9 foliage to grow 12 feet high and to within zero feet of the stop sign at the intersection of 10 Commonwealth and Juniper, so as to provide Cole with privacy, all in violation of City of 11 San Diego Municipal Code § 142.0409, and to obscure the stop sign at Commonwealth
12 Avenue and Juniper Street.

13 28. Because of Cole's violation of the City's Municipal Code, which allowed the intersection
14 and City Municipal Code mandated visibility area to be obscured, Mr. Tran, while driving
15 eastbound on Juniper Street, was unable to see across Cole's property to ascertain if there 16 was any oncoming traffic approaching the intersection at a speed which would put 17 Mr. Tran on notice that said oncoming traffic may not stop at the intersection and yield
18 the right-of-way to Mr. Tran.

19 29. Because of Cole's failure and the City's failure to obey the City's visibility ordinance,
20 defendant Arrellano was unable to see the stop sign at the intersection of Commonwealth
21 and Juniper because it was obscured by foliage in violation of City ordinances.

22 30. Defendant Cole was negligent in that she knew, or with the exercise of reasonable care
23 should have known that by violating the City's Municipal Code, as alleged herein, and
24 causing the intersection and stop sign to become obscured by fencing and foliage, that it 25 was reasonably foreseeable that vehicles approaching the intersection would not be able 26 to see each other and it was reasonably foreseeable that an automobile collision would 27 occur at said intersection.
28

31. Defendant Chili's Restaurant Inc., ("Chili's") had a legal obligation, pursuant to federal law, to ascertain the immigration status of Leonel Arrellano. Chili's failed to ascertain Mr. Arrellano's immigration status.

32. On the evening of November 17, 2006, and the early morning hours of November 18, 2006, and at all times relevant to this Complaint, Chili's also permitted Mr. Arrellano as a cook to consume alcoholic beverages, without purchasing them, on its premises, before and after business hours, to become intoxicated, and to drive his pickup truck home.

33. Chili's was negligent in that it knew, or with the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that Mr. Arrellano, and other cooks at Chili's Restaurant, were illegal aliens, and that Mr. Arrellano's driver's license was counterfeit and that it was reasonably foreseeable that if Chili's permitted him to drink on its premises after closing hours, that he would become intoxicated and that he would get involved in a motor vehicle accident.

34. Defendant Arrellano had a duty to operate his motor vehicle in a manner so as not to cause harm to third parties.

35. Defendant Arrellano had a duty to obey all Vehicle Codes during the operation of his pickup truck, including stopping at all stop signs and yielding the right-of-way to oncoming traffic.

36. Defendant Arrellano negligently drove his pickup truck by negligently failing to stop at the stop sign on the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street, in violation of the State Vehicle Code..

37. Defendant Arrellano was negligent in that he knew, or with the exercise of reasonable care should have known that if he drove while intoxicated, failed to obey traffic laws, including failing to stop at intersections controlled by stop signs, that it was reasonably foreseeable that he would collide with another vehicle and cause physical injuries to third parties such as plaintiff.

38. As a direct and legal cause of defendants' negligence, as alleged above, defendant Arrellano drove while intoxicated, was driving southbound on Commonwealth Avenue at 1:05 a.m. on November 18, 2006, his view of the stop sign was obscured by illegally maintained foliage at the corner of Commonwealth and Juniper, and as a result he collided with Mr. Tran's vehicle driving eastbound on Juniper Street.

39. As a further direct and legal cause of defendants' negligence, as alleged above, Mr. Tran suffered catastrophic and permanent injuries to his body, including but not limited to head trauma, subarachnoid hemorrhage, loss of consciousness, coma, ruptured spleen and severe and permanent brain injuries.

40. As a further direct and proximate result of defendant's negligence, Mr. Tran was hurt and injured in his health, strength, and activity, sustaining permanent and life threatening injury to his brain and person all of which injuries have caused and continue to cause Mr. Tran great mental, physical, and nervous pain and suffering.

41. As a further direct and proximate result of defendant's negligence, Mr. Tran has incurred, and will continue to incur medical and other economic expenses in an amount according to proof at trial.

42. As a further direct and proximate result of defendant's negligence, Mr. Tran's earning capacity has been greatly impaired, both in the past and in the present in an amount according to proof at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Negligence Per Se Against LEONEL ARRELLANO, PATRICIA L. COLE, and DOES 1 through 15 inclusive)

43. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 42, inclusive, as though fully set forth.

44. Defendant Cole is the owner of a residence commonly known as 3496 Juniper Street and located at the northwest corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street. Said corner is the location of the Commonwealth Avenue Stop Sign which controlled the intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper.

45. The City restricts all corner property throughout the City from having any fences or planting material taller than 3 feet within 25 feet of an intersection. City of San Diego Municipal Code §§ 113.0273, 113.0103 and 142.0310. The purpose of said ordinances is

1 to protect the class of drivers, including plaintiff and defendant, by providing visibility of
2 vehicles approaching intersections and by ensuring that traffic control devices are not
3 obscured by foliage.

4 46. The purpose of the fence and plant height restriction, as alleged above, on corner lots is to 5 maintain adequate visibility on private property and in the public right-of-way. City of 6 San Diego Municipal Code § 142.0301. The purpose of said ordinances is to protect the 7 class of drivers, including plaintiff and defendant, by providing visibility of vehicles
8 approaching intersections and by ensuring that traffic control devices are not obscured by 9 foliage.

10 47. Plant material in the City right-of-way, located within the visibility area, as defined by 11 City of San Diego Municipal Code § 113.0103, shall not exceed 24 inches in height as 12 measured from the top of the adjacent curb. City of San Diego Municipal Code §
13 142.0409(b)(2). The purpose of said ordinances is to protect the class of drivers,
14 including plaintiff and defendant, by providing visibility of vehicles approaching
15 intersections and by ensuring that traffic control devices are not obscured by foliage.

16 48. The City has a visibility area which all corner property owners must obey, as defined in 17 City of San Diego Municipal Code § 113.0103. Measurement of the City's visibility area
18 is codified in the City's Municipal Code, § 113.0273, as graphically indicated in the 19 City's Municipal Code, § 113.0273, diagram 113-02RR.

20 49. The City also has an ordinance which restricts trees from being within 20 feet of a stop
21 sign. City of San Diego Municipal Code § 142.0409. The purpose of said ordinances is
22 to protect the class of drivers, including plaintiff and defendant, by providing visibility of
23 vehicles approaching intersections and by ensuring that traffic control devices are not
24 obscured by foliage.

25 50. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Cole's property was in violation of 26 said City ordinances, as alleged herein, in that it had fencing and foliage along Juniper
27 Street and Commonwealth Avenue approximately 6 feet tall and running continuously
28 along the property lines on both Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street, directly to

1 the intersection, all in violation of the City's visibility ordinances as codified in City of
2 San Diego Municipal Code §§ 113.0273, diagram 113-02RR, 113.0103, 142.0301,
3 142.0310 and 142.0409(b)(2).

4 51. Defendant Cole's property is also adjacent to a City right-of-way in which the City and
5 Cole permitted foliage to grow 12 feet high and to within zero feet of the stop sign at the 6 intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper, so as to provide Cole with privacy, all in 7 violation of City of San Diego Municipal Code § 142.0409.

8 52. Said City Municipal Codes, as alleged herein, are to allow adequate sight distances for 9 safe vehicle and pedestrian movement at intersections involving a public right-of-way.
10 City of San Diego Municipal Code §§ 113.0103 and 142.0409(b)(2). Included within the 11 class of protected persons are plaintiff Tran and defendant Arrellano.

12 53. Because of Cole's violation of the City's Municipal Code, as alleged herein, which 13 allowed the Municipal Code mandated visibility area and stop sign to be obscured, Mr.
14 Tran, while driving eastbound on Juniper Street, was unable to see across Cole's property
15 to ascertain if there was any oncoming traffic approaching the intersection at a speed
16 which would put Mr. Tran on notice that said oncoming traffic may not stop at the 17 intersection and yield the right-of-way to Mr. Tran.

18 54. Because of Cole's failure to obey the City's visibility ordinance, defendant Arrellano was 19 unable to see the stop sign at the intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper because it
20 was obscured by foliage in violation of City ordinances. Defendant Arrellano was also 21 not able to see Mr. Tran's automobile approaching the intersection.

22 55. Defendant Cole was negligent in that she knew, or with the exercise of reasonable care
23 should have known that by violating the City's Municipal Code, as alleged herein, and
24 causing the intersection to become obscured by fencing and foliage, that it was reasonably
25 foreseeable that vehicles approaching the intersection would not be able to see each other
26 and it was reasonably foreseeable that an automobile collision would occur at said
27 intersection.
28

56. Defendant Arrellano had a duty to operate his motor vehicle in a manner so as not to cause harm to third parties.

57. Defendant Arrellano had a duty to obey all Vehicle Codes, including Vehicle Code §§ 22450(a), 23153(a) and 22350 during the operation of his pickup truck, including stopping at all stop signs, and yielding the right-of-way to oncoming traffic.

58. Defendant Arrellano negligently failed to stop at the stop sign on the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street in violation of the State Vehicle Code.

59. Defendant Arrellano was negligent in that he knew, or with the exercise of reasonable care should have known that if he failed to stop at intersections controlled by stop signs it was reasonably foreseeable that he would collide with another vehicle and cause physical injuries to third parties such as plaintiff.

60. Mr. Tran, an operator of a motor vehicle on City streets was in the class of persons said City ordinances and State Vehicle Codes, as alleged herein, were meant to protect.

61. The injuries suffered by Mr. Tran are those which said ordinances, as alleged above, were enacted to protect the public from.

62. As a direct and legal cause of defendants' negligence, as alleged above, defendant Arrellano drove while intoxicated, was driving southbound on Commonwealth Avenue at 1:05 a.m. on November 18, 2006, his view of the stop sign was obscured by foliage at the corner of Commonwealth and Juniper, and he collided with Mr. Tran's vehicle driving eastbound on Juniper Street.

63. As a further direct and legal cause of defendants' negligence, as alleged above, Mr. Tran suffered catastrophic and permanent injuries to his body, including but not limited to head trauma, subarachnoid hemorrhage, loss of consciousness, coma, ruptured spleen and severe and permanent brain injuries.

64. As a further direct and proximate result of defendant's negligence, Mr. Tran was hurt and injured in his health, strength, and activity, sustaining permanent and life threatening injury to his brain and person all of which injuries have caused and continue to cause Mr. Tran great mental, physical, and nervous pain and suffering.

65. As a further direct and proximate result of defendant's negligence, Mr. Tran has incurred, and will continue to incur medical and other economic expenses in an amount according to proof at trial.

66. As a further direct and proximate result of defendant's negligence, Mr. Tran's earning capacity has been greatly impaired, both in the past and in the present in an amount according to proof at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Dangerous Condition of Public Property, [Government Code §§ 835 and 840.2], Against City of San Diego and DOES 16 Through 50 inclusive)

67. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 66, inclusive, as though fully set forth.

68. On November 18, 2006, at 1:05 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully driving his automobile eastbound on Juniper Street in the City of San Diego.

69. The City of San Diego owns and controls a right-of-way along Commonwealth Avenue at the intersection of Juniper Street.

70. The City of San Diego is responsible for, and has a duty to maintain its right-of-way, including trimming of all foliage in the right of way which may obscure any traffic control devices, such as stop signs, or which may obscure the visibility area as defined by the City of San Diego Municipal Code, §§ 113.0273, diagram 113-02RR, 113.0103, 142.0301, 142.0310 and 142.0409(b)(2), so as to not create a dangerous condition of said property to any person lawfully using City property, such as City streets for private vehicular traffic.

71. The City of San Diego's right-of-way along Commonwealth Avenue, at the intersection of Juniper Street, was in a dangerous condition at the time of the accident, in that the City, in violation of its own Municipal Code, as alleged herein above, permitted foliage to grow 12 feet high and to within zero feet of the stop sign at the intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper, so as to obscure the stop sign at Commonwealth and Juniper, all in violation of City of San Diego Municipal Code § 142.0409 and Table 142-04E.

72. The City of San Diego's right-of-way along Commonwealth Avenue, at the intersection of Juniper Street, was in a dangerous condition at the time of the accident, in that the City, in violation of its own Municipal Code, as alleged herein above, permitted the visibility area across the adjacent corner property own by defendant Cole, to be obscured, all in violation of the City's Municipal Code §§ 113.0273, diagram 113-02RR, 113.0103, 142.0301, 142.0310 and 142.0409(b)(2).

73. The purpose of said City of San Diego ordinances, as alleged herein above, is to provide visibility across corner properties for the safety of pedestrians and motor vehicles and to prevent the type of accident which occurred by the City's failure to ensure its own right-of-way was not in violation of its Municipal Code and not creating a dangerous condition.

74. The City of San Diego Street Division is responsible for maintaining all foliage in City right-of-ways in such a manner so as to not result in a dangerous condition of property wherein the visibility area or a traffic control signal is obscured.

75. The employees of the City of San Diego Street Division are responsible for maintaining all foliage in City right-of-ways in such a manner so as to not result in a dangerous condition of property wherein the visibility area or a traffic control signal is obscured.

76. The City of San Diego is responsible for enforcing it Municipal Code, as alleged herein above, and to see to it that all corner property within the City, including the property owned by defendant Cole, is not in violation of City of San Diego ordinances as alleged herein, so as to constitute a dangerous condition of City roadways, including Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street.

77. The City of San Diego is responsible to warn motorists like Mr. Tran of dangerous conditions, like the obstructed eastbound and southbound visibility area caused by the foliage and the foliage obstructed stop sign for southbound Commonwealth Avenue traffic at the intersection of Juniper Street.

78. Because of the City's failure to maintain its right-of-way the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street resulted in a dangerous condition of public property. The lack of visibility at the intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper.

combined with the obscured stop sign, resulted in a dangerous condition of City owned property; to wit, the intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper, which is also a City right-of-way.

79. The collision between defendant Arrellano's pickup truck and Mr. Tran's automobile, as alleged herein above, was proximately caused by the inability of defendant Arrellano to see the stop sign which was obscured by the foliage, which also trapped plaintiff into believing he could continue safely with his right-of-way on Juniper Street.

80. The collision between defendant Arrellano's pickup truck and Mr. Tran's automobile was further proximately caused by Mr. Tran's inability to see across the intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper, through the City Municipal Code defined 25 foot visibility area, so as to be able to see defendant Arrellano's pickup truck approaching the intersection at a rate of speed which would have put Mr. Tran on notice that it was reasonably foreseeable that defendant Arrellano would not stop at the intersection and that a collision was reasonably foreseeable if Mr., Tran did not stop his automobile and yield to defendant Arrellano.

81. The purpose of the City's visibility area, as City Municipal Code §§ 113.0273, diagram 113-02RR, 113.0103, 142.0301, 142.0310 and 142.0409(b)(2) are to maintain adequate visibility on both private property and city right-of-ways to allow for adequate sight distances for safe vehicle travel at intersections involving a city right-of-way.

82. The dangerous condition created by the foliage in the City right-of-way, which was approximately 12 feet tall, within zero feet of the stop sign and obscuring the stop sign, combined with the City's failure to enforce its visibility ordinance against the corner property owner, created a reasonably foreseeable risk that a motor vehicle would not see the stop sign on Commonwealth Avenue and would fail to stop at the intersection, hence colliding with a vehicle on Juniper Street.

83. On November 18, 2006, and prior thereto, the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street was in a dangerous condition, all in violation of Government Code § 835, that created a substantial risk of the type of injury herein alleged when the property was

1 use with due care in a manner that it was reasonably foreseeable that it would be used, in
2 that the foliage and fencing on defendant Cole's adjacent private property exceed the City
3 Municipal Code height limit of 3 feet, violated the City's visibility ordinance in that said
4 foliage was 6 feet tall and within zero feet of the intersection thus obscuring the stop sign
5 at the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street, creating a substantial
6 risk that motor vehicles traveling across the intersection would not be able to see each
7 other as they approach the intersection.

8 84. The dangerous condition created by the foliage in the City right-of-way, which was
9 approximately 12 feet tall, within zero feet of the stop sign and obscuring the stop sign,
10 combined with the City's failure to enforce its visibility ordinance against the corner
11 property owner, created a reasonably foreseeable risk that a driver, such as Mr. Tran,
12 traveling on Juniper Street, would not have adequate sight distances for safe vehicle
13 travel and would collide with a vehicle traveling across the intersection of 14 Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street.

15 85. The failure of the City, and its employees in the City of San Diego, Street Division, and
16 other City agencies charged with the responsibility to maintain City right-of-ways,
17 including the trimming of foliage which obscured stop signs and the Municipal Code
18 mandated visibility area, created the dangerous condition which existed at the intersection
19 of commonwealth Avenue and Juniper on November 18, 2006, at 1:05 a.m.

20 86. The City breached its duty of care to plaintiff in that the City was also on actual and
21 constructive notice of the dangerous condition at Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper
22 Street, as alleged herein above, in that City residents in the area had complained to the
23 City about the obscured stop sign at Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street, and
24 obscured visibility area, yet the City failed to take any action which would eliminate the
25 dangerous condition created by the foliage and the obscured stop sign.

26 87. The City breached its duty of care to plaintiff by carelessly, negligently and improperly
27 maintaining, managing, supervising and controlling City owned property, including the 28 intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street as alleged herein.

1 88. The City further breached its duty of care to plaintiff in that the dangerous condition
2 created by the 12 foot tall foliage in the City right-of-way within zero feet of the stop sign
3 and obscuring the stop sign, combined with defendant Cole's property blocking the
4 Municipal Code mandated visibility area, had existed, and had been permitted to exist for
5 such a long period of time which would allow the foliage to grow to such a height, width
6 and breadth, and was of such an obvious nature that the City, in the exercise of due care,
7 should have discovered the condition and its dangerous character.

8 89. The City further breached its duty of care to plaintiff in that a reasonably adequate,
9 practical, inexpensive and simple City system of inspection would have resulted in the 10 dangerous condition, as alleged herein, to have been discovered prior to the November
11 18, 2006, accident as alleged herein.

12 90. The City further breached its duty of care to plaintiff in that the City maintained and 13 operated such an inspection system, but failed to operate it with due care and so
14 negligently designed and operated such an inspection system to as to render it useless.
15 Hence, the City failed to discover the dangerous condition which caused the November
16 18, 2006, accident as alleged above.

17 91. On February 15, 2007, the City of San Diego was personally served with a Tort Claim, in
18 accordance with City of San Diego requirements and with the State of California Torts
19 Claim requirements. The City rejected said claim on April 11, 2007.

20 92. As a direct and legal cause of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, as alleged 21 above, defendant Arrellano was driving southbound on Commonwealth Avenue at
22 1:05 a.m. on November 18, 2006, his view of the stop sign was obscured by foliage at the
23 corner of Commonwealth and Juniper, and he collided with Mr. Tran's vehicle driving
24 eastbound on Juniper Street.

25 93. As a direct and legal cause of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, as alleged
26 above, which obscured the stop sign on Commonwealth Avenue at the intersection of
27 Juniper Street, and which allowed the intersection and City Municipal Code mandated
28 visibility area to be obscured. Mr. Tran, while driving eastbound on Juniper Street, was unable to see across Cole's property to ascertain if there was any oncoming traffic approaching the intersection at a speed which would put Mr. Tran on notice that said oncoming traffic may not stop at the intersection and yield the right-of-way to Mr. Tran. Hence, the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street constituted a dangerous condition of public property.

94. As a further direct and legal cause of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, as alleged above, Mr. Tran's automobile was completely destroyed in the collision.

95. As a further direct and legal cause of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, as alleged above, Mr. Tran suffered catastrophic and permanent injuries to his body, including but not limited to head trauma, subarachnoid hemorrhage, loss of consciousness, coma, ruptured spleen and severe and permanent brain injuries.

96. As a further direct and proximate result of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, Mr. Tran was hurt and injured in his health, strength, and activity, sustaining permanent and life threatening injury to his brain and person all of which injuries have caused and continue to cause Mr. Tran great mental, physical, and nervous pain and suffering.

97. As a further direct and proximate result of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, Mr. Tran has incurred, and will continue to incur medical and other economic expenses in an amount according to proof at trial.

98. As a further direct and proximate result of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, Mr. Tran's earning capacity has been greatly impaired, both in the past and in the present in an amount according to proof at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Provide a Traffic Warning Device Against the City of San Diego [Gov't Code 830.8] and DOES 16 through 50 Inclusive)

99. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 98. inclusive. as though fully set forth.

100. On November 18, 2006, at 1:05 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully driving his automobile eastbound on Juniper Street in the City of San Diego.

1 101. The City of San Diego owns and controls a right-of-way along Commonwealth Avenue at 2 the intersection of Juniper Street.

3 102. The City of San Diego is responsible for, and has a duty to maintain its right-of-way,
4 including trimming of all foliage in the right of way which may obscure any traffic
5 control devices, such as stop signs, or which may obscure the visibility area as defined by 6 the City of San Diego Municipal Code, §§ 113.0273, diagram 113-02RR, 113.0103,
7 142.0301, 142.0310 and 142.0409(b)(2), so as to not create a dangerous condition of said
8 property to any person lawfully using City property, such as City streets for private 9 vehicular traffic.

10 103. The City of San Diego's right-of-way along Commonwealth Avenue, at the intersection
11 of Juniper Street, was in a dangerous condition at the time of the accident, in that the 12 City, in violation of its own Municipal Code, as alleged herein above, permitted foliage to 13 grow 12 feet high and to within zero feet of the stop sign at the intersection of 14 Commonwealth and Juniper, so as to obscure the stop sign at Commonwealth and 15 Juniper, all in violation of City of San Diego Municipal Code § 142.0409 and Table 142-16 04E.

17 104. The City of San Diego's right-of-way along Commonwealth Avenue, at the intersection
18 of Juniper Street, was in a dangerous condition at the time of the accident, in that the 19 City, in violation of its own Municipal Code, as alleged herein above, permitted the 20 visibility area across the adjacent corner property own by defendant Cole, to be obscured,
21 all in violation of the City's Municipal Code §§ 113.0273, diagram 113-02RR, 113.0103,
22 142.0301, 142.0310 and 142.0409(b)(2).

23 105. The purpose of said City of San Diego ordinances, as alleged herein above, is to provide 24 visibility across corner properties for the safety of pedestrians and motor vehicles and to 25 prevent the type of accident which occurred by the City's failure to ensure its own right-
26 of-way was not in violation of its Municipal Code and not creating a dangerous condition.

27 106. The City of San Diego Street Division is responsible for maintaining all foliage in City
28 right-of-ways in such a manner so as to comply with said City ordinances as alleged herein above, and to not result in a dangerous condition of property wherein the visibility area or a traffic control signal is obscured.

107. The City of San Diego is responsible for enforcing its Municipal Code, as alleged herein above, and to see to it that all corner property within the City, including the property owned by defendant Cole, is not in violation of City of San Diego ordinances as alleged herein, so as to constitute a dangerous condition of City roadways, including Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street.

108. The City of San Diego is responsible to warn motorists like Mr. Tran of dangerous conditions, like the obstructed eastbound and southbound visibility area caused by the foliage and the foliage obstructed stop sign for southbound Commonwealth Avenue traffic at the intersection of Juniper Street. This includes a warning sign or stop sign for eastbound Juniper Street traffic, of which none existed, thereby constituting a concealed trap. Government Code § 830.8; Kessler v. State (1988) 206 Cal.App.3d 317, 322; Hilts v. County of Solano (1968) 265 Cal.App.2d 161; Bakity v. County of Riverside (1970) 12 Cal.App.3d 24. Existing warning signs were inadequate to warn Mr. Tran. This dangerous condition could have been prevented under Government Code § 830.8 by installing an eastbound Juniper Street stop sign at Commonwealth Avenue, but negligently was not.

109. The City should have installed a stop sign on Juniper Street once it decided to violate its own Municipal Codes and permit the Commonwealth Avenue stop sign, at the intersection of Juniper Street, to be obscured by foliage and to permit the visibility area to be obstructed and obscured by foliage, hence allowing a dangerous condition of public property to exist.

110. Because of the City's failure to maintain its right-of-way, and to enforce its Municipal Code on corner property, the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street resulted in a dangerous condition of public property. The lack of visibility at the intersection of Commonwealth and Juniper, combined with the obscured stop sign,

1 resulted in a dangerous condition of City owned property; to wit, the intersection of
2 Commonwealth and Juniper, which is also a City right-of-way.

3 111. The collision between defendant Arrellano's pickup truck and Mr. Tran's automobile, as 4 alleged herein above, was proximately caused by the inability of defendant Arrellano to 5 see the stop sign which was obscured by the foliage, which also trapped plaintiff into 6 believing he could continue safely with his right-of-way on Juniper Street.

7 112. The collision between defendant Arrellano's pickup truck and Mr. Tran's automobile was 8 further proximately caused by Mr. Tran's inability to see across the intersection of 9 Commonwealth and Juniper, through the City Municipal Code defined 25 foot visibility
10 area, so as to be able to see defendant Arrellano's pickup truck approaching the 11 intersection at a rate of speed which would have put Mr. Tran on notice that it was 12 reasonably foreseeable that defendant Arrellano would not stop at the intersection and 13 that a collision was reasonably foreseeable if Mr., Tran did not stop his automobile and 14 yield to defendant Arrellano.

15 113. The purpose of the City's visibility area, as City Municipal Code §§ 113.0273, diagram
16 113-02RR, 113.0103, 142.0301, 142.0310 and 142.0409(b)(2) are to maintain adequate
17 visibility on both private property and city right-of-ways to allow for adequate sight
18 distances for safe vehicle travel at intersections involving a city right-of-way.

19 114. The dangerous condition created by the foliage in the City right-of-way, which was
20 approximately 12 feet tall, within zero feet of the stop sign and obscuring the stop sign,
21 combined with the City's failure to enforce its visibility ordinance against the corner
22 property owner, created a reasonably foreseeable risk that a motor vehicle would not see
23 the stop sign on Commonwealth Avenue and would fail to stop at the intersection, hence
24 colliding with a vehicle on Juniper Street.

25 115. On November 18, 2006, and prior thereto, the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and 26 Juniper Street was in a dangerous condition, all in violation of Government Code § 835, 27 that created a substantial risk of the type of injury herein alleged when the property was
28 use with due care in a manner that it was reasonably foreseeable that it would be used, in

1 that the foliage and fencing on defendant Cole's adjacent private property exceed the City
2 Municipal Code height limit of 3 feet, violated the City's visibility ordinance in that said
3 foliage was 6 feet tall and within zero feet of the intersection thus obscuring the stop sign
4 at the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street, creating a substantial
5 risk that motor vehicles traveling across the intersection would not be able to see each
6 other as they approach the intersection.

7 116. The dangerous condition created by the foliage in the City right-of-way, which was
8 approximately 12 feet tall, within zero feet of the stop sign and obscuring the stop sign,
9 combined with the City's failure to enforce its visibility ordinance against the corner
10 property owner, created a reasonably foreseeable risk that a driver, such as Mr. Tran,
11 traveling on Juniper Street, would not have adequate sight distances for safe vehicle
12 travel and would collide with a vehicle traveling across the intersection of 13 Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street.

14 117. The failure of the City, and its employees in the City of San Diego, Street Division, and
15 other City agencies charged with the responsibility to maintain City right-of-ways,
16 including the trimming of foliage which obscured stop signs and the Municipal Code
17 mandated visibility area, created the dangerous condition which existed at the intersection
18 of commonwealth Avenue and Juniper on November 18, 2006, at 1:05 a.m.

19 118. The City breached its duty of care to plaintiff in that the City was also on actual and
20 constructive notice of the dangerous condition at Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper
21 Street, as alleged herein above, in that City residents in the area had complained to the
22 City about the obscured stop sign at Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street, and
23 obscured visibility area, yet the City failed to take any action which would eliminate the 24 dangerous condition created by the foliage and the obscured stop sign.

25 119. The City breached its duty of care to plaintiff by carelessly, negligently and improperly
26 maintaining, managing, supervising and controlling City owned property, including the 27 intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street as alleged herein.
28

1 120. The City further breached its duty of care to plaintiff in that the dangerous condition
2 created by the 12 foot tall foliage in the City right-of-way within zero feet of the stop sign
3 and obscuring the stop sign, combined with defendant Cole's property blocking the
4 Municipal Code mandated visibility area, had existed, and had been permitted to exist for
5 such a long period of time which would allow the foliage to grow to such a height, width
6 and breadth, and was of such an obvious nature that the City, in the exercise of due care,
7 should have discovered the condition and its dangerous character.

8 121. The City further breached its duty of care to plaintiff in that a reasonably adequate,
9 practical, inexpensive and simple City system of inspection would have resulted in the
10 dangerous condition, as alleged herein, to have been discovered prior to the November
11 18, 2006, accident as alleged herein.

12 122. The City further breached its duty of care to plaintiff in that the City maintained and
13 operated such an inspection system, but failed to operate it with due care and so
14 negligently designed and operated such an inspection system to as to render it useless.
15 Hence, the City failed to discover the dangerous condition which caused the November
16 18, 2006, accident as alleged above.

17 123. The City further breached its duty of care to plaintiff by maintaining a concealed trap for 18 eastbound traffic on Juniper Street at Commonwealth Avenue.

19 124. On February 15, 2007, the City of San Diego was personally served with a Tort Claim, in
20 accordance with City of San Diego requirements and with the State of California Torts
21 Claim requirements. The City rejected said claim on April 11, 2007.

22 125. As a direct and legal cause of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, as alleged
23 above, defendant Arrellano was driving southbound on Commonwealth Avenue at 1:05
24 a.m. on November 18, 2006, his view of the stop sign was obscured by foliage at the
25 corner of Commonwealth and Juniper, and he collided with Mr. Tran's vehicle driving
26 eastbound on Juniper Street.

27 126. As a direct and legal cause of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, as alleged
28 above, which obscured the stop sign on Commonwealth Avenue at the intersection of

1 Juniper Street, and which allowed the intersection and City Municipal Code mandated
2 visibility area to be obscured, Mr. Tran, while driving eastbound on Juniper Street, was
3 unable to see across Cole's property to ascertain if there was any oncoming traffic
4 approaching the intersection at a speed which would put Mr. Tran on notice that said
5 oncoming traffic may not stop at the intersection and yield the right-of-way to Mr. Tran.
6 Hence, the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Juniper Street constituted a 7 dangerous condition of public property.

8 127. As a further direct and legal cause of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, as 9 alleged above, Mr. Tran's automobile was completely destroyed in the collision.

10 128. As a further direct and legal cause of the dangerous condition of defendants' property, as 11 alleged above, Mr. Tran suffered catastrophic and permanent injuries to his body, 12 including but not limited to head trauma, subarachnoid hemorrhage, loss of 13 consciousness, coma, ruptured spleen and severe and permanent brain injuries.

14 129. As a further direct and proximate result of the dangerous condition of defendants'
15 property, Mr. Tran was hurt and injured in his health, strength, and activity, sustaining 16 permanent and life threatening injury to his brain and person all of which injuries have 17 caused and continue to cause Mr. Tran great mental, physical, and nervous pain and 18 suffering.

19 130. As a further direct and proximate result of the dangerous condition of defendants'
20 property, Mr. Tran has incurred, and will continue to incur medical and other economic 21 expenses in an amount according to proof at trial.

22 131. As a further direct and proximate result of the dangerous condition of defendants'
23 property, Mr. Tran's earning capacity has been greatly impaired, both in the past and in 24 the present in an amount according to proof at trial.

25
26 WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment as set forth below

27 1. For general damages in a sum to be proved at trial, against all defendants on 28 all causes of action;

2. For special damages, including all expenses for loss of present and future support in a sum according to proof against all defendants on all causes of action;
3. For damages to real and personal property according to proof, against all defendants;
4. For costs of suit herein incurred.
5. For such other and further relief as the court may deem proper

Re:	My Client:	Bun Bun Tran
	Your Insured/Defendant:	Leonel Arrellano
	Date of Accident:	November 18, 2006
	Your Claim No.:	060409287

Dear Ms. Foster:

Please be advised that I represent Bun Bun Tran, who was seriously injured because of your insured running a stop sign. Thereafter, your insured fled from the scene. He has been arrested and is currently awaiting a criminal hearing in February of this year. My client has been hospitalized at UC San Diego, Floor 8 East, Room 812A, in a comatose condition since November 18, 2006. I understand that you have learned about his condition and the facts behind this accident from Esurance, the auto insurance company of Bun Bun Tran. You therefore know that the medical expenses are approaching $700,000 and Progressive has insufficient amounts of liability insurance.

My client is represented by his mother/guardian, Le Thi Nguyen. My client is hereby willing to be responsible for any and all medical and other liens so long as Progressive tenders all of its liability limits within 15 days from the date of this letter subject to the further condition precedent of convincing me that there are no other responsible parties, whether insured or not, causing this accident. If I am convinced, I will state as much in a letter. If I am not convinced, I will never state as much in a letter and there will be no settlement. Please also tell me, since it may bear on settlement, whether or not your insured received liquor at a Chili's restaurant shortly before the accident, and if so, which Chili's restaurant. We understand that Chili's was your insured's employer at the time of the accident.

Very truly yours,

Anh Q. D. Nguyen

Re: Tran v. Arrellano
Our File: P21084

Dear Mr. Angelo:

I am in receipt of your April 29, 2008 letter. In that letter, you attempt to memorialize certain items which are correct and incorrect. This letter will hopefully clarify those issues.

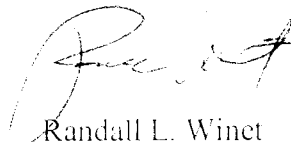

First, you are correct that our office is not representing Mr. Arrellano in the federal action. Secondly, your letter references that our office asked Progressive to pay our firm to represent Mr. Arrellano in the federal action. This statement is incorrect. Our firm never asked to represent Mr. Arrellano in the federal action. However, we did request that Progressive pay for other counsel to represent Mr. Arrellano in the federal action. Third, you are correct that in response to our request for Progressive to pay for counsel for Mr. Arrellano in the federal action, Progressive declined.

Our office remains in contact with Mr. Arrellano in prison. As stated previously, we are not at liberty to tell you what conversations we have with Mr. Arrellano, and cannot do so. For Mr. Arrellano's protection, it is good news that the Declaratory Relief action against Mr. Arrellano has been dismissed.

Since we continue to represent Mr. Arrellano in the defense of litigation filed by your client, we again must insist that any contacts made with Mr. Arrellano be performed through our office.

Sincerely,

Re: Progressive West Insurance Company vs. Bun Bun Tran, et al.
Your File No. P21084

Dear Mr. Winet:

Enclosed please find a copy of Progressive Insurance Company's October 16, 2007 Complaint for Declaratory Relief filed against my client and your client, Leonel Arrellano. As you can see, Progressive has hired the defense firm of Robie & Matthai, an insurance defense firm just like yours. I told Mr. McLaughlin at yesterday's deposition of this fact, and he was totally unaware that such a lawsuit had been filed.

I then asked Mr. McLaughlin about the status of his client signing my assignment of bad faith rights to collect any over limits judgment against Progressive first, not Arrellano. Mr. McLaughlin told me that you were in complete charge of that. Hence, I am writing you this letter. Mr. McLaughlin did tell me that both of my bad faith letters have been sent to Mr. Arrellano, but Mr. McLaughlin does not know if you also sent my assignment of bad faith rights contract to Mr. Arrellano. Have you?

More importantly, you must have known that Progressive West Insurance Company was going to file this Federal action against your primary client, Mr. Arrellano, because this Progressive Federal action encloses a copy of my June 28, 2007 letter to Jim McLaughlin of your firm.

Have you found a personal attorney who speaks Spanish to communicate with your primary client, Mr. Arrellano, in an effort to respond to my bad faith assignment letters? If not, please send this letter to Mr. Arrellano to advise him that I know a Spanish speaking lawyer by the name of Mike Trabish, who rents office space in my building and whose telephone number is: (310) 939-7122. Will you give permission to have Mr. Trabish attempt to contact Mr. Arrellano at the Sierra Correctional Center in an effort to set up an interview and to discuss the bad faith assignment and/or to discuss representing Mr. Arrellano in the Progressive Federal Declaratory Relief matter just filed? If I do not hear from you within the next week, I will assume that you have no objection to Mr. Trabish making contact with Mr. Arrellano at the Sierra Correctional Facility, where his deposition was taken, located at: Sierra Conservation Center, 5100 O'Byrnes Ferry Road, Jamestown, CA 95327, (209-984-5291).

Is it your intent to have a default judgment entered against Mr. Arrellano in the Progressive Federal action enclosed herein? Is it your intent to arrange a lawyer to be representing Arrellano in the Federal complaint? If not, please immediately instruct Progressive to hire personal counsel to represent Arrellano in the Federal action. Enclosed please find a copy of my firm's Motion to Dismiss the Federal Complaint against my client and Arrellano on the grounds that the Federal Court is without jurisdiction. Please also give this Motion to Dismiss to Progressive and a personal counsel of your choosing to represent Mr. Arrellano in the Federal action. If this is not to be done, then please immediately arrange to have Mr. Trabish fly up to Sierra Correctional Facility to meet with Mr. Arrellano. Mr. Trabish is willing to do this whenever it is convenient for Mr. Arrellano.

Mr. McLaughlin once told me that Mr. Arrellano may be changing prison facilities. If this has already occurred, please indicate what prison Mr. Arrellano is currently confined at.

Finally, I consider Progressive's Federal lawsuit to be an interference with a protected property interest, one of many acts of interference.

I assume that you have also informed Mr. Arrellano of the value of his own emotional distress and punitive damage claim against Progressive pursuant to the case law of Betts vs. Allstate (1984) 154 Cal.App.3d 688. Someone is denying him his own lawsuit. As you know, my bad faith assignment specifically allows Mr. Arrellano to retain his own rights to sue Progressive for emotional distress and punitive damages. If I chose not to do this, I could have had Mr. Arrellano assign "all" bad faith claims, forcing him to waive his own personal bad faith claims under Murphy vs. Allstate Insurance (1976) 17 Cal.3d 937, 946, and Parcell vs. Colonial Insurance (1971) 20 Cal.App.3d 807, 817.

If you continue to refuse to cooperate with my requests, and if you continue to interfere with protected property interests, then I will seriously consider withdrawing any current willingness to allow Mr. Arrellano to retain his own emotional distress and punitive damages. How can you continue to be the sole means of communication with Mr. Arrellano when you are also cooperating with Progressive in providing only selective documentation to assist Progressive in filing the aforementioned Federal action against Mr. Arrellano and my client? Don't you see a

Dear Mr. Angelo:

I am in receipt of your November 28, 2007 letter. Previously, I informed you that I would not be sharing my communications with my client with you. Despite that fact, you continue to write letters to me to ask me specific questions about communications with Mr. Arrellano. Once again, I will not be sharing with you my communications with Mr. Arrellano because these conversations are protected by the attorney/client privilege.

Your November 28, 2007 letter also makes incorrect assumptions. Progressive Insurance did not consult with me or Mr. McLaughlin regarding its filing of a Complaint for Declaratory Relief. My first receipt of that document was the Complaint received with your letter. Contrary to the inferences contained in your letter, neither myself nor Mr. McLaughlin are involved in the insurance company's decision as to coverage in this case.

Your November 28, 2007 letter tells us that you have hand picked a lawyer to discuss your proposed bad faith assignment as well as the federal declaratory relief action for Mr. Arrellano, and then states that if you do not hear back from us within one week, you will have that attorney contact Mr. Arrellano. I find your comment that you will have an attorney contact my client regarding bad faith issues if you do not hear back from me within one week to be unethical. In fact, it violates the California Rules of Professional Responsibility and is grounds for individuals to be disciplined by the State Bar. You and Mike Trabish do not have the authority to contact Mr. Arrellano directly. If he decides that he wishes to utilize Mr. Trabish's services, I will contact you directly. Otherwise, any contact with him by you or Mr. Trabish is a violation of ethics in contacting a party who is represented in the litigation.

Your November 28, 2007 letter further asks what our office intends to do regarding our representation involving Mr. Arrellano. Once again, my communications with him are privileged. I am not going to share attorney/client communications with you.

I resent the insinuation at the end of your letter that our office is assisting Progressive Insurance in filing the federal declaratory relief action. Your assertion and comments are not only unprofessional, but also inappropriate.

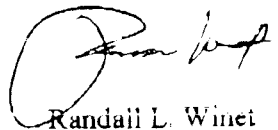

Finally, in my prior letter to you, I explained that the proposed Covenant Not to Execute from your office provided Mr. Arrellano no protection if your client's action was not successful against Progressive Insurance. For that reason, I explained that it appeared the Covenant Not to Execute was not providing Mr. Arrellano the protection personally since your client could still pursue him individually if your client was not successful against Progressive. In responses to my letter, you responded in short that "beggars could not be choosers." Is this still your position?

Preliminarily, it would appear that my original recommendation of your client obtaining a Covenant Not to Execute against Mr. Arrellano after judgment would protect both parties. As I'm sure you are aware, Mr. Arrellano does not have funds to satisfy any judgment obtained against him, and our objective is to protect him personally, which can be accomplished with a Covenant Not to Execute after judgment.

I anticipate that I will be speaking with Mr. Arrellano in the near future, so please advise if it is still your position that your client will only agree to the proposed Covenant Not to Execute forwarded by your office, or if he would be willing to sign a Covenant after judgment, fully protecting Mr. Arrellano.

Sincerely,

WINET, PATRICK & WEAVER

Re: Tran v. Arrellano
Our File: P21084

Dear Mr. Angelo:

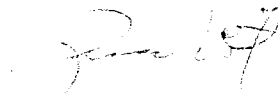

I am in receipt of your April 3, 2008 letter. Once again, you attempt to make statements and comments which are inappropriate and also incorrect. First, the first sentence of your letter references that our firm "receives business from A.I.G. Insurance Group." To set the record straight, I am aware of two cases wherein we defended an insured after A.I.G. took over a defense, and handled another case that was referred to our office by A.I.G. on a special issue. Our firm has not and does not regularly perform business for A.I.G. Insurance Group. Any insinuation by your office that our decisions or representation in this case is based upon some pre-existing or ongoing business relationship with A.I.G. Insurance is ridiculous and incorrect.

You spoke with Jim McLaughlin, from our firm regarding the responses to the Requests for Admissions by Mr. Arrellano. Mr. McLaughlin correctly told you that Mr. Arrellano would be answering the Requests for Admissions honestly and under oath as required by law.

Our office has spoken with Mr. Arrellano several times and we have also met with him. As I informed you in a number of previous letters, we have not and will not discuss our conversations with Mr. Arrellano. Those communications are protected by the attorney-client privilege.

Sincerely,

WINET, PATRICK & WEAVER

CASE NO. 07 - CV 1999 JAH (POR)

APPLICATION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT BY COURT AGAINST DEFENDANT LEONEL
 ARRELLANO; DECLARATION OF
 RONALD P. FUNNELL

Date: June 2, 2008
 Time: 2:30 p.m.
 Ctrm: 11
 940 Front Street
 San Diego, CA 9210

TO DEFENDANT LEONEL ARRELLANO AND HIS ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on June 2, 2008, at 2:30 p.m. or as soon thereafter as this matter may be considered by the above entitled Court, located at 940
 Front Street, San Diego, California, Plaintiff Progressive West Insurance Company
 ("Progressive") will present its application for a default judgment against defendant
 Leonel Arrellano. The clerk has previously entered the default of said defendant on April 9, 2008.

At this time Plaintiff requests the Court to enter a judgment of default based on the Declaration of Ronald P. Funnell and the following matters:

1 1. Defendant Leonel Arrellano is not a minor or incompetent person or in
2 military service or otherwise exempted under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief
3 Act of 1940; and

4 2. Defendant Leonel Arrellano was served with the summons and the 5 complaint on November 17, 2007. Said defendant has not appeared in this action, nor 6 answered the complaint.

7 3. Plaintiff is entitled to judgment against said defendant on account of the 8 claims pleaded in the complaint, to wit:

9 Plaintiff Progressive insured Defendant Leonel Arrellano for the policy period
10 May 30, 2006 to November 30, 2006 under California Motor Vehicle Policy number
11 16558999-00. On November 18, 2006, Defendant Arrellano collided with Defendant
12 Bun Bun Tran's automobile, causing Mr. Tran serious injuries from which he remains 13 comatose.

14 Following the accident, Mr. Arrellano was arrested for driving under influence
15 of alcohol, driving without a license and fleeing the scene of the accident. The 16 accident report assigned fault to Mr. Arrellano. In June 2007, he was sentenced to 6
17 years in a California prison.

18 On or about January 26, 2007, attorney Anh Quoc Duy Nguyen wrote
19 Progressive demanding that Progressive tender its liability policy limits within fifteen
20 (15) days. (A copy of Attorney Nguyen's demand letter is attached to the Funnell
21 Declaration as Exhibit 1.)

22 Plaintiff is informed and believes that at the time Attorney Nguyen sent his 23 January 26, 2007 letter, he was not legally representing Bun Bun Tran, but, instead
24 was representing Mr. Tran's mother. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 25 Mr. Tran's mother was not then guardian ad litem of Mr. Tran. As a result, Attorney
26 Nguyen had no legal authority to settle the claims of Mr. Tran, nor did he have legal 27 authority to release claims of Mr. Tran against any tortfeasor.

28 Attorney Nguyen's demand did not offer a release or dismissal in exchange for

1 payment of the insurance benefits, but was subject to the condition precedent “of 2 convincing [Nguyen] there are no other responsible parties, whether insured or not,
3 causing this accident. If I am not convinced, I will state as much in a letter and there
4 will be no settlement.”

5 It was legally and factually impossible to convince Attorney Nguyen that there
6 were no other responsible parties for causing this accident, given the facts and 7 circumstances of the accident, and that Patricia Cole, in fact, paid Bun Bun Tran
8 $300,000 to settle the liability claim against her arising from this accident in July 9 2007.

10 As a result of the above condition precedent, attorney Nguyen’s demand was 11 not an offer to settle within the policy’s limits. Rather, the condition precedent of 12 “convincing” Nguyen was outside of the policy and its stated limits.

13 Nevertheless, on February 2, 2007, Progressive sent a letter to Attorney
14 Nguyen offering its policy limits, within 7 days of the demand. (A true and correct
15 copy of this letter is attached to the Funnell Declaration as Exhibit 2). Attorney
16 Nguyen rejected the offer and referred Mr. Tran’s claim to attorney Christopher 17 Angelo.

18 On or about May 8, 2007, Attorney Angelo filed a lawsuit on behalf of Mr.
19 Tran against Mr. Arrellano alleging causes of negligence and negligence per se 20 regarding the above mentioned automobile accident. It is clear from the 21 correspondence, discovery and pleadings filed in that case that Mr. Angelo intended 22 to obtain a judgment against Mr. Arrellano and then sue Progressive for breach of 23 contract and breach of covenant of good faith and fair dealing for failing to settle Mr.
24 Tran’s claim within policy limits.

25 4. Plaintiff Progressive is entitled to a declaratory judgment against 26 defendant Arrellano stating the following rights and duties of the parties under the 27 involved policy of insurance:

28 That in handling Leonel Arrellano’s claim arising from the November 18, 2006

1 motor vehicle accident, Progressive has discharged its obligations under the insurance
2 policy and in accord with California law; and that its conduct in response to the 3 January 26, 2007 letter from Attorney Nguyen was reasonable, was not in bad faith,
4 and did not eliminate or jeopardize the $15,000 policy limits available under the 5 Progressive California Motor Vehicle Policy number 16558999-00 issued to insured
6 defendant Leonel Arrellano.

7 The above stated facts are set forth in the accompanying declaration of Ronald
8 P. Funnell, filed herewith.

Re:	My Client:	Bun Bun Tran

	Your Claim No.:	060409287

Dear Ms. Foster:

Please be advised that I represent Bun Bun Tran, who was seriously injured because of your insured running a stop sign. Thereafter, your insured fled from the scene. He has been arrested and is currently awaiting a criminal hearing in February of this year. My client has been hospitalized at UC San Diego, Floor 8 East, Room 812A, in a comatose condition since November 18, 2006. I understand that you have learned about his condition and the facts behind this accident from Esurance, the auto insurance company of Bun Bun Tran. You therefore know that the medical expenses are approaching $700,000 and Progressive has insufficient amounts of liability insurance.

My client is represented by his mother/guardian, i.e. Thi Nguyen. My client is hereby willing to be responsible for any and all medical and other liens so long as Progressive tenders all of its liability limits within 15 days from the date of this letter subject to the further condition precedent of convincing me that there are no other responsible parties, whether insured or not, causing this accident. If I am convinced, I will state as much in a letter. If I am not convinced, I will never state as much in a letter and there will be no settlement. Please also tell me, since it may bear on settlement, whether or not your insured received liquor at a Chili's restaurant shortly before the accident, and if so, which Chili's restaurant. We understand that Chili's was your insured's employer at the time of the accident.

Very truly yours,

Anh Q. D. Nguyen

Re:	My Client:	Bun Bun Tran
	Your Claim No.	060409287
	Date of Loss:	November 18, 2006
	Your Insured:	Leonel Arrellano

Dear Ms. Turner:

I have received your March 2, 2007 letter, which I must reject in its entirety. Firstly, you have never asked for an extension to my previous policy limits offers nor have you asked in your March 2, 2007 letter for a reinstatement of any policy limits settlement offer on behalf of my client from my office.

Your March 2, 2007 letter merely states that you are just now making an "effort to investigate and evaluate this claim." You also admit in this letter that you are "waiting for a demand from the City of San Diego for their property damage." When did you first become aware of any potential claim against your insured by the City of San Diego? Was it after a governmental tort claim was made against the City of San Diego? Have you also become aware, through the City of San Diego, of a criminal prosecution against Leonel Arrellano in which he has pled guilty and where he remains incarcerated? When did you first make an effort to obtain a police report for this accident? Enclosed is an extra copy of the police report, which my office obtained but which you never requested or discussed. How is it that you must still "investigate and evaluate"? How is it that my client is supposed to wait around for you to determine when it is convenient to advise us "of the progress of [your] investigation?"

As to the last paragraph of your March 2, 2007 letter, my above questions and enclosed police report is in response to your letter statement: "If you have any questions or other information that has relevance to our consideration of your claim, please contact the undersigned.” Please limit all of your future communications with my office to letter form. I sadly regret the arrogant and dismissive nature of your March 2, 2007 letter. The City of San Diego’s alleged property damage claim could have been paid out of the money received from the Victims of Crime Fund. Your company’s typical inability to communicate, except through form letters, has resulted in your insured remaining as a defendant in larger litigation. My office would have dismissed all claims against the world had Progressive West Insurance Company only been prompt, timely and polite.

Very truly yours,

Anh Q. D. Nguyen
